Time on Task: 3¾ hours per week

Course Philosophy

In history/social studies the student will acknowledge that mankind began with a grand design from God the creator preserving man's beginning and purpose through His word allowing His truths to be passed on to generations to complete His purpose on Earth.

Course Description

In Grade 5, students learn about the history of the United States from its early beginnings to the present with a focus on colonial times through the 20th century. Historical content includes the colonial revolutionary periods, the establishment of the United States, and issues that led to the civil War. An overview of major events and significant individuals of the late-19th century and the 20th century is provided. Students learn about a variety of regions in the United States that result from physical features and human activity and identify how people adapt to and modify the environment. Students explain the characteristics and benefits of the free enterprise system and describe economic activities in the United States. Students identify the roots of representative government in this nation as well as the important ideas in the Declaration of Independence and the U. S. constitution. Students recite and explain the meaning of the Pledge of Allegiance. Students examine the importance of effective leadership in a democratic society and identify important leaders in the national government. Students examine fundamental rights guaranteed in the Bill of rights. Students describe customs and celebrations of various racial, ethnic, and religious groups in the nation and identify the contributions of famous inventors and scientists. Students use critical thinking skills including sequencing, categorizing, and summarizing information and drawing inferences and conclusions.

Students recite and explain the meaning of the Pledge of Allegiance. Students examine the importance of effective leadership in a democratic society and identify important leaders in the national government. Students examine fundamental rights guaranteed in the Bill of Rights. Students describe customs and celebrations of various racial, ethnic, and religious groups in the nation and identify the contributions of famous inventors and scientists. Students use critical-thinking skills including sequencing, categorizing, and summarizing information and drawing inferences and conclusions. (2) To support the teaching of the essential knowledge and skills, the use of a variety of rich primary and secondary source material such as biographies; novels; speeches and letters; and poetry, songs, and artworks is encouraged. Selections may include Yankee Doodle. Motivating resources are also available from museums, historical sites, presidential libraries, and local and state preservation societies. (3) The eight strands of the essential knowledge and skills for social studies are intended to be integrated for instructional purposes with the history and geography strands establishing a sense of time and a sense of place. Skills listed in the geography and social studies skills strands in subsection (b) of this section should be incorporated into the teaching of all essential knowledge and skills for social studies. A greater depth of understanding of complex content material can be attained when integrated social studies content from the various disciplines and critical-thinking skills are taught together. (4) Throughout social studies in Kindergarten-Grade 12, students build a foundation in history; geography; economics; government; citizenship; culture; science, technology, and society; and social studies skills. The content, as appropriate for the grade level or course, enables students to understand the importance of patriotism, function in a free enterprise society, and appreciate the basic democratic values of our state and nation as referenced in the Texas Education Code, §28.002(h).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Korean War</li> <li>○ Vietnam</li> <li>• American History <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Contributions of states and regions to America’s history</li> <li>○ Roaring Twenties</li> <li>○ Depression of the 1930s</li> <li>○ Events and personalities up to the 1990s</li> </ul> </li> <li>• Government <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Communism, socialism, dictators</li> </ul> </li> <li>• Economics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Inventions: automobile, airplane</li> <li>○ Stock market</li> <li>○ Investments</li> <li>○ Supply and demand</li> </ul> </li> <li>• Culture <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Languages</li> <li>○ Religions</li> <li>○ Customs</li> <li>○ Architectural styles of American home</li> </ul> </li> </ul> Correlation with TEKS For the Sake of Freedom: Struggles of a New Century (1903 to 2000) Bob Jones Press, Student ISBN 089084-990-0 Teacher ISBN 1-57924-061-5	(I Samuel 23:2) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>6.
